

Research Presentation Award Winners

LINC Scholars' Awards for Research - Regional and National Competitive Research Events

Fifty (50) LINC Intern Researchers have been recognized by judging panels as deserving awards for their Research presentations at competitive regional and national events. The journey to participation includes seeking and earning research internships, delivering high quality research, and constructing and submitting Research Abstracts that are accepted into the field of competition. Over one hundred (100) LINC scholars earned the chance to compete, signaling the excellent quality of their work.
